

Bad Karma Bio's

David Smith – Lead Vocals, Guitar

David a New York City native is a longtime Capital land favorite and musical survivor. Having wore many musical hats throughout his career, guitarist, artist, singer, songwriter, producer, band member and all around musical bon vivant, David comes full circle, leading his own band with their own unique standard of exciting, blues and groove based rock music. As guitarist and songwriter for nationally and internationally known groups Blacksmith and Freaknation. David brings many years of experience to the stage. Touring and promotions throughout the U. S. and abroad, along with a number of CD/Record releases America and Europe over the past decade prove his professionalism and dedication to music. A number of David's original songs have appeared in several Fox syndicated television shows over the past few years. Mr. Smith's fiery and imaginative guitar work, along with his powerful and soulful lead vocals, lay down an exciting framework for his Bad Karma partners.

John Dodge – Lead Vocals, Bass

John is a longtime favorite to the Capital area music scene, with his powerful, fluid and inventive bass playing, Johns brings a big solid groove to the band. John is also quite accomplished vocalist, sharing lead vocal duties and adding "on the money" harmonies to the bands overall sound. John has seen much of the world, and some of his touring stints include Texas and into Mexico. John served as a player and pilot for the Capital District band LOKI, and Tazmanian Metal to name a few. John's experience in the technical side of the sonic production and staging, lend itself in the overall quality and "big picture" of the group. John's great attitude, enthusiasm and hard work within the band, pay off large dividends within the Bad Karma partnership.

Michael Craig – Lead Vocals, Drums

Michael's musical likes and influence cover a wide range that may be odd to some, but understood also. Growing up in beautiful Crime-Free Albany in the 70's, listening to Aerosmith, Kiss, Chicago, Elvis, Bad Co. and ELO as well as appreciating the Motown stuff like The Jackson 5, Stevie Wonder and The Temptations from years before, Mike began to relate them all to one common thing, GROOVE. Then came the formative years, the 80's!! Metal ruled at alma mater Colonie High School, and that seemed to be Mike's calling. Ozzy, Priest, Maiden, Dio, Kiss and Motley, Michael got into his first band at age 16. Through the years, the names of the bands he's been in, and gained experience in have changed more than he can even keep track of, but one thing remained constant, Michael loved to rock, hard and heavy, hitting the drums as hard as he could, and keeping one thing in mind... Entertain!!!!
